

PUTTING GREEN

Putting Green turf is crafted to deliver a smooth, true-to-life playing surface that closely mimics the performance of a professional golf green. Its vibrant green tones and subtle thatch layer create a clean, natural appearance that enhances any space. Designed for precision and consistency, it provides reliable ball roll and a firm, even feel underfoot, while its durable construction and efficient drainage make it a long-lasting, low-maintenance option for both practice and landscape design.
